

Scribbling

I can make marks (no meaning ascribed)

I can draw and make marks, and ascribe meaning

Drawing

I can make marks with purpose (lines that go across, up and down, and around)

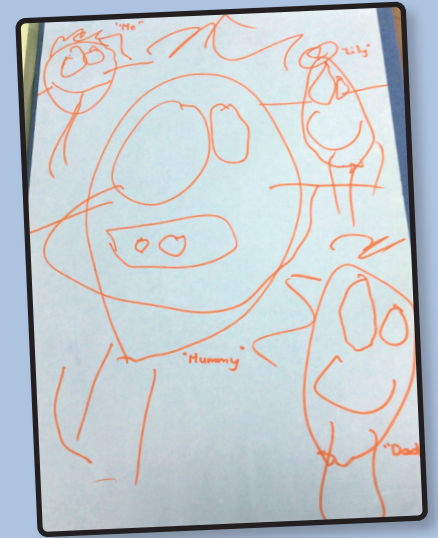

I can talk about the marks I have made

Shapes

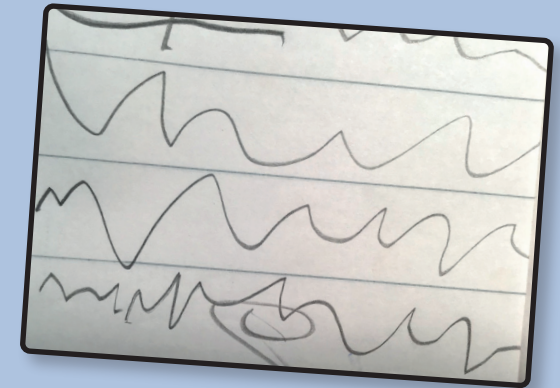

I can mark-make with shapes and lines

I ascribe meaning to the marks I make (I may change the meaning)

Faux Handwriting

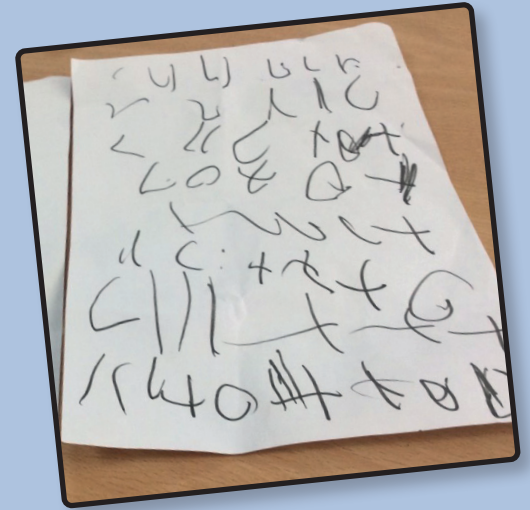

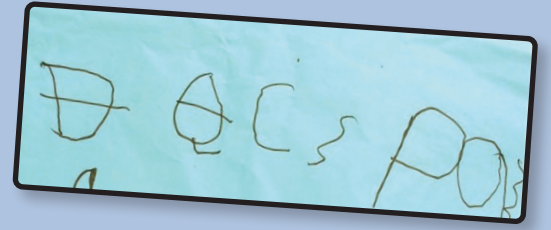

I can make marks with purpose	I pretend to write words
I can make marks that imitate handwriting, writing left to right	I ascribe meaning to my marks

Letter-like Shapes

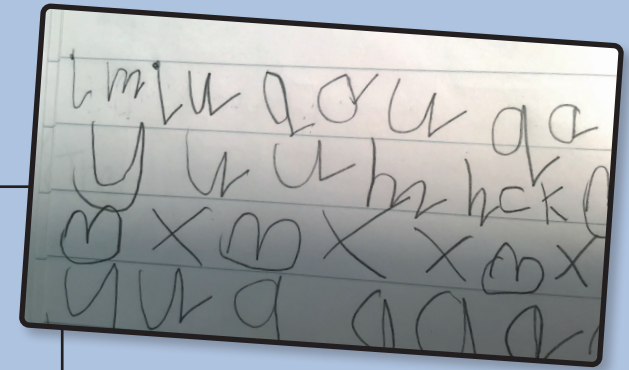

I draw letter-like shapes

I may use some letters from my name

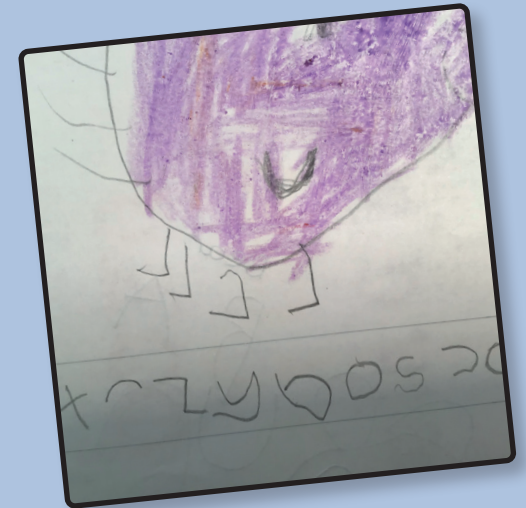

Strings of Letters

I can copy the letters from my name

I can give detailed descriptions about the meaning of my marks (the meaning remains the same)

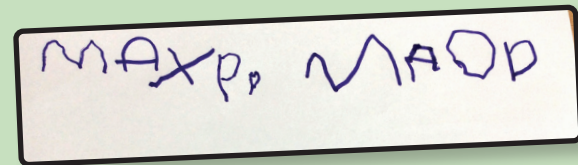

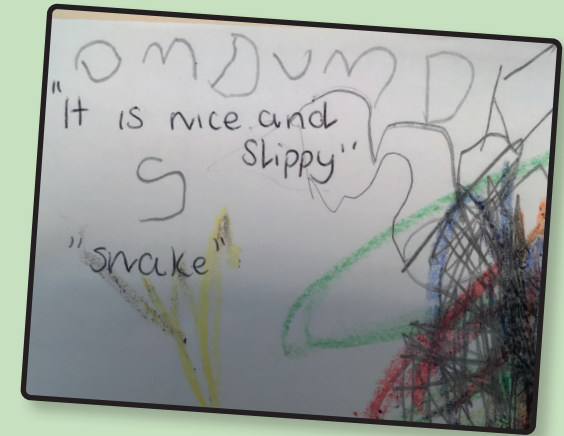

I draw strings of letters that do not create words left to right

Transitional Writing

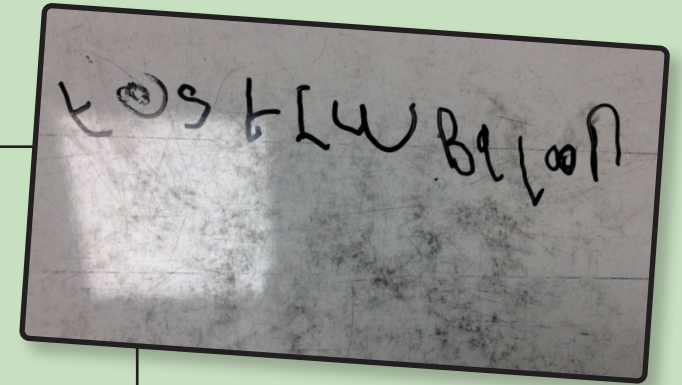

I draw letters with spaces inbetween to resemble words

I copy words from the environment (letters may be reversed)

Phonetic Spelling

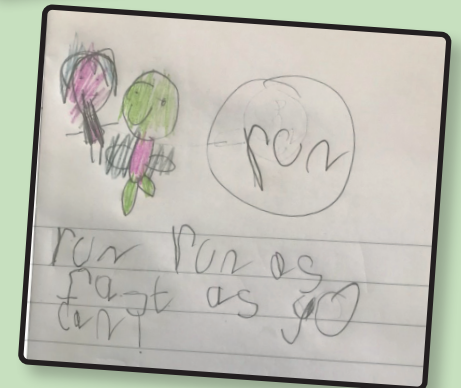

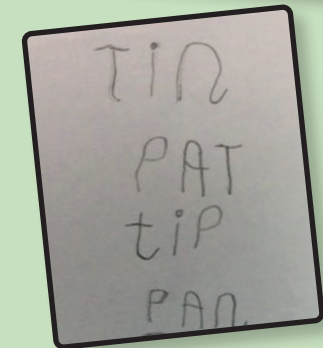

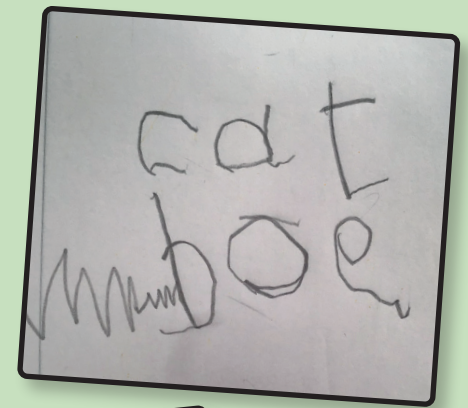

I use identifiable letters that match initial or end sounds in words

I can tell you what my writing says

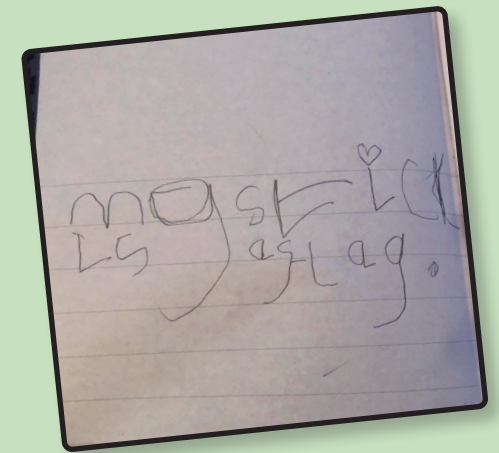

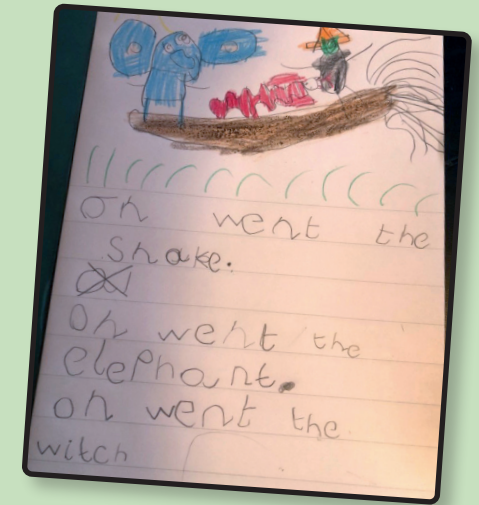

Word & Phrase Writing

I can write beginning, middle and end sounds in a word	I can write some simple keywords correctly
I can write CVC/CVCC words independently	I can write my full name correctly

Short Captions

I can remember the caption/phrase I want to write	I can write some keywords
I can read my caption so I know the next word to write	I write captions in a meaningful context
I write short captions with phonetic spelling

Sentence Writing

I can write short sentences independently using my letter sound correspondences and keywords	I can use spaces between my words
My words are phonetically plausible	I can form lowercase and capital letters correctly
I can read my sentence, and so can others	I can use a capital letter and full stop

